The N-crowd

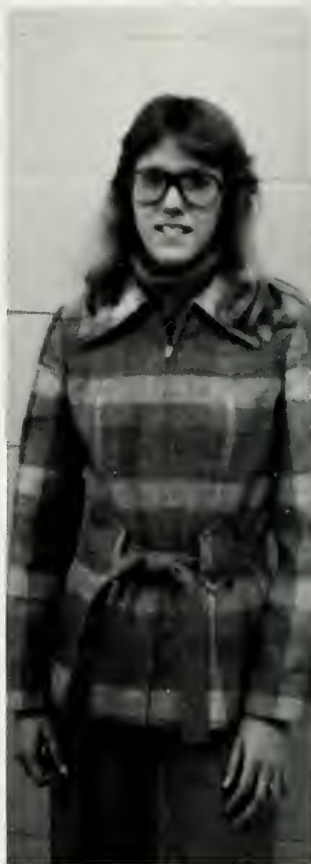

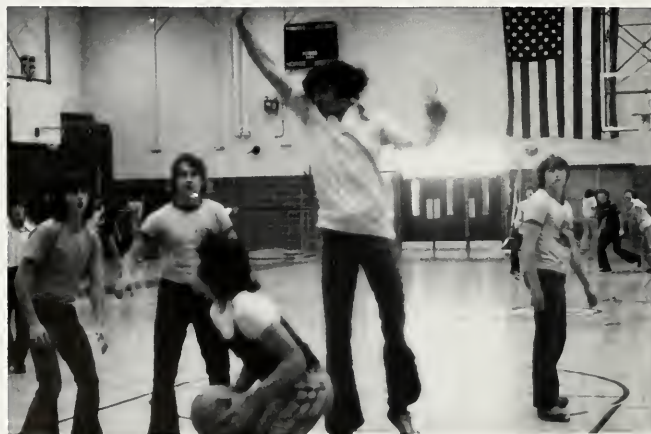

Life at Northfield begins at 8:00 a.m. August 25th. One by one the buses arrive at school and hesitantly we step off. Some of us drive our family cars to school after begging our parents and promising not to get one scratch on any square inch of the car. While others who are fortunate enough to own a car drive to school.

We walk slowly into the building wondering what changes have been made and asking ourselves, "How will I ever get back into the swing of things?"

We go to our lockers and talk to our friends whom we have not seen for sometime. When the bell rings at 8:10 we walk to our first class. Some will have already gone to class for fear of not finding it or being late.

We glance around the room to see if any of our friends are there. Sometimes we see a new face. We walk over to a seat and sit down. The room is silent. One could almost hear a pin drop. As the teacher enters the room all eyes are on him. He proceeds to take a head count and says in a day or so he will make a seating chart.

He surveys the room with a careful eye and then passes out those old books. We glance through the book and wonder how we are ever going to learn all of this in nine months, but the teacher assures we will.

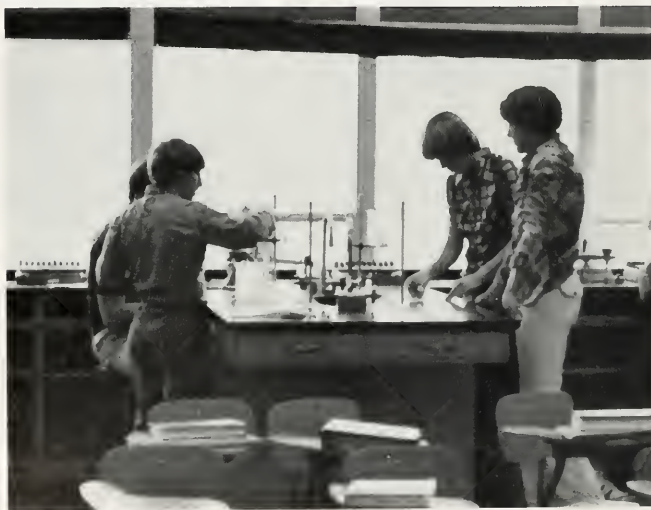

Time passes quickly, but not fast enough it seems. Five minutes before the end of class the teacher makes our first assignment. Everyone knew that he was going to make it.

The bell rings and the first class is over. In five minutes the next class begins and later another.

When it is time for lunch some of us go to the cafeteria to eat and talk to friends. Some go to the gym to play ping pong. Another bell rings at the end of the lunch period. We know we only have a few classes to go before we can go home at 3:15 p.m.

The afternoon passes quickly and now it is 3:15. There is all at once a scurry to go home. Some don't go home right away, but stay for athletic practice or special organization meetings. Tomorrow will be another day in our life as a member of the N-Crowd.

Look...It's All Smiles

In the midst of a very successful football season an air of excitement rose from the halls of NHS, on October 8th, as the student body prepared for a victorious Homecoming against Whites Institute. The theme for 1976-77 Homecoming was "The Animated World of Walt Disney." Float judging included freshmen winning fourth place using characters from Captain Hook; seniors placed third basing their float on The Jungle Book; sophomores placed second with Winnie-the-Pooh and the juniors winning first place with their float displaying Dumbo the flying elephant.

On that very chilly night, Miss Pat Meston stepped down from her reign as Homecoming Queen to give the title to Miss Debbie Winters, junior. Her court included Wendy Holman, senior; Rosie Kramer, sophomore; and Cambi Rensberger, freshman.

Mad success

As the house lights went down and the curtain opened, Northfield patrons beheld a wonderous sight. Where an empty stage once stood was a little French cafe and the home of "The Madwoman of Chaillot." Yes, on November the 12th and 13th, the world was shown through the superb acting of all cast members and by the excellent performances by the back-stage crews that when the talent of NHS combines with ONE Barbara Durnbaugh miracles occur!!! (Congratulations troupe for a job WELL done!)

The Signs of Christmas

On December 17th the Northfield cafeteria became alive with the spirit of Christmas, as the FCA and Tri-Hi-Y sponsored the annual Christmas Dance. First Carnival provides fun, frolic, and funds

"Hey slugger, can't ya hit the target!" . . . Splash! the aroma of popcorn, the splat of whipped cream . . .

These are just a few sights and sounds of a new adventure of the Student Council for the 1976-77 year . . . A Carnival.

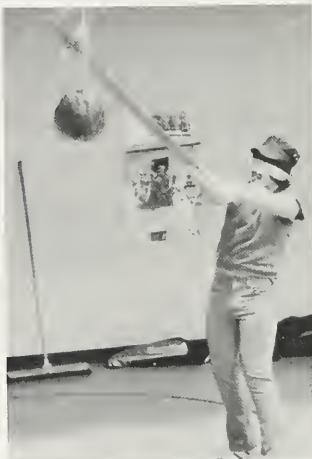

Each club was encouraged to participate, as a money-making project, by setting up some type of booth. All sorts of entertainment were available to those attending, from a homemade baked goods booth to a whipped cream pie throw to a dunkin' booth. The Carnival was a success and will probably become an annual event at NHS.

Good Times

Throughout the year we had a variety of convocations varying from music groups, comedians to a band and other ensembles. Each was enjoyed by all.

On March 23, 1977, the Baseball Boosters sponsored the 6th annual soup supper. Over 500 people attended this fund-raising event. After the supper, the NHS "Fabulous Faculty" took on the Harlem Diplomats in an exciting basketball game. The Diplomats ended up winning the hard fought battle 71-63. The money received from the supper will be used to purchase athletic equipment for the school.

The theme of the prom: "Stairway to Heaven," was displayed by a golden stairway outlined with twinkling lights and angel's hair. Centerpieces of royal blue and ivory feathers and silver stars decorated each table. The entertainment was provided by the "Circus City Six." They set the mood of the prom by playing the theme song. Graduation brings smiles

Briskly, on May 21, as the band played the recessional, the 127 officially graduated members of the Class of 1977 walked back up the isles with diplomas and carnations, their class flower, in hand.

The exercises took place in the old gym. Cindy Martin opened with the invocation. The major commencement address, given by Mr. Clyde Gentry, was entitled, "Be Alive Inside and Out". Addresses were also given by Valedictorian, Mickey Strange; Salutatorian, Robin Elrod; and Honor Student, Lee Ann Morrison. I before E except after C, one of many rules!

If you should walk into the library sometime and find it crawling with kids looking for novels you'll know it's got to be book report time in most of the English classes. Ever walk in and find kids sobbing in the corner because they can't find the topic they wanted for a term paper? You've probably experienced that feeling yourself if you've had junior English or advanced composition. Boy, what would we do without English? I know what we couldn't do—write this paragraph for you to read!

$$x + 1 = 4 \quad a^2 + b^2 = c^2 \quad r^2 + r^2 \cos^5 \theta = a^2$$

Most people could figure out the first 2 equations without a lot of trouble. The last 2 however, are a LITTLE more difficult. Thank goodness NHS has teachers like Mr. Steve Desper, Mr. Harold Christie, Mr. Ken Norman, and Miss Lucy Dundore to help the poor students decipher such problems!

Among the courses they teach are: practical math, algebra 1 & 2, geometry, trigonometry, and analytic geometry.

4. Mr. Christie shows students how to solve the Math problem. # 5. Math teachers, first row: Mr. Christie, algebra, and general math; Miss Dundore, seventh grade math; Mr. Reahard, eighth grade math. Department receives new books

Along with the new books received this year in the science department the students also received a few new smells in the halls from those great chemists trying out their new experiments. We also got some loud pops and bangs as they combined hydrogen and oxygen to form water vapor.

Those industrious physics students (all five of them) were really busy learning those laws of force and movement. While the biology students were busy dissecting their frogs, worms and fetal pigs. How do they feel about getting to do this right after lunch? Fun! Fun!

And we can't forget about all those 7th and 8th graders learning the distance from the moon to the earth in light years and the way weatherfronts move across the country. It has been a busy year in the science department.

How many students would know EXACTLY when the War of 1812 was fought if it weren't for the watchful eyes of the History Dept.? Thanks to the team of Clark, Miller, Kaltmark, Winegardner, and Price—the students of NHS learn exactly where their "roots" lie. The business department, believes that business education should help students obtain economic intelligence and understanding in all phases of their lives. The dept. tries to aid students in solving consumer-business problems. Groups demonstrate their creativity

Students called upon their imaginations and creativity to complete various projects throughout the year in the Art Department. Some of these projects included: tie dying, painting, weaving, and sculpturing. These are just a few of their various endeavors.

The Music Department gained two new teachers this year. The high school and stage bands were under the direction of Mr. Mike Miller while the choirs were directed by Mr. William Rust. Both groups were very busy giving concerts.

A new program started this year was the Band King & Queen. The first students to be crowned were Carla Yentes and Mark Wagner. They received their honors at the spring concert on May 13th.

Home Ec. adds new equipment

This year the Home Economics Department added 3 new sewing machines and a microwave oven. The high school curriculum is: freshmen, a consumer unit and interpersonal relationships; sophomores, nutrition, table service, food preparation technique, clothing and textiles—with the making of a lined vest and pants or skirt. Juniors and seniors have family living and advanced clothing—with the making of a jacket or formal.

Also, this year the "Bachelor Survival" class was widened to include both sexes and is now called "Single Survival".

4. Teachers, Mrs. Georgia Busch and Miss Kathy McGovern look over clothing projects. # 5. Delana Gamsby, Jane Barnett, and Toni Wilson put the new microwave to good use. # 6. Rosie Cramer and Debbie Deeter sew diligently on their clothing projects.

New and exciting experiences for classes

New and exciting things have happened in the Foreign Language Dept. Our program was expanded to the junior high level. 7th and 8th grade students could select a 9 weeks course (Introduction to Foreign Languages) to acquaint themselves with foreign language study.

This program plus the increase in enrollment prompted the hiring of a parttime teacher, Miss Susan Krom, a NHS graduate.

Ten students from the French class and three chaperons spent their spring vacation in Montreal and Quebec. This was another FIRST for Northfield.

Our foreign exchange program is growing also with more and more students visiting other countries.

P.E. FUN !!!

When asked what their favorite classes are, many students reply "P.E." ... Physical Education is just as important as other classes, because it provides activity for the body which makes the blood circulate better. The more blood that goes to your brain, the better you think ...

From Jr. high to your sophomore year, P.E. is required. Upperclassmen can take Advanced P.E. as an elective. Any sport you can think of is played in P.E. Different sports range from basketball to archery. Any sport is good to help break up the monotony of the day.

Industrious Students

The Northfield Vo-Ag Dept. built many projects during the 1976-77 school year. Beginning students learned the fundamentals through demonstrations and practical experience. Each year as the student progresses, they pursue more difficult assignments. Steam cleaning and spray painting farm equipment are preennial favorites along with the construction of picnic tables and the repair and operation of small engines.

Vocational school proves to be worthwhile

Many Northfield students attend the Upper Wabash Career Center. The Career Center offers courses which provided practical training in many areas. Some of these courses are office training, beauty culture, auto mechanics, ag. mechanics, electronics, accounting and data processing, drafting, building trades, food service, and several others. The Career Center is attended by students from Northfield, Southwood, Wabash, North Manchester, Peru, and North Miami. Students attend their home schools for half of the day, and the Career Center the other half. A few ambitious students attend their home schools all day and enroll in a late afternoon course at the Career Center. The Career Center provides both training and valuable experience for those students wishing to learn a specific trade.

Cross Country led by seniors

Led by three outstanding seniors, the varsity cross country team jogged over two thousand miles during the 1976 season. Deafeating four of their Conference foes, the seven Norse runners turned in a 6-7 record. Some of the seasons highlights were the trails of Brown County, running on the new 24 bypass, bumpy rides in bus 14, morning practices (with breakfast), placing third in the Conference meet, Kevin loosing his shoe, and Coach Leming's station wagon. Dedication, desire and determination helped the Norse step up their winning pace. By the end of the season everyone had improved their times tremendously. Congratulations fellas on a good season.

The Norse, with two games left in the season, upset a powerful Whitko team by an outstanding team effort (19-14), which enabled us to move into runner-up position. The Norse won their second straight Homecoming by crushing Whites 33-0. The team ended the season with 7 wins and 3 losses. Way to go Norsemen!

The Norse, coached by Mr. Robert Denari, shot the lowest team total of any golf squad in Northfield's history . . . 162. The golfers worked hard to strive for the best possible season, and they managed to accomplish it.

End of the season awards went to Curt Holmes and Chris Denari, co-medalist; Denari, efficiency points; Phil Draper, best win-loss record; Nat Vrooman, most improved; and Jeff Draper, best JV win-loss record.

Rugged Wrestlers on the Rampage

The Norse wrestlers led by a strong group of seniors met the challenge of the new T.R.C. by capturing second in the conference meet. The Norse also advanced more wrestlers than ever before to the Regional: Russ Waldon, Kelly Good, Cary Hammel, Jim Johnson and Mike Kasamis. Coach Campbell's team had another winning season although some individuals had mediocre performances in sectional and regional competition. The best records for the season were 20-1 Cary Hammel, and 17-2-1 Mike Kasamis. Other outstanding seniors were Jim Johnson, Jeff Waldon, and Kevin Kelly. The new gym area improved wrestling conditions and made the sport part of Northfield.

Norse Greatly Improved !!!

This year the varsity basketball team started the season with ten players and concluded with only eight. However, eight seems to have been a magic number as the Norse also tallied 8 wins against 14 losses. The fact that the team won two games in overtime verifies that the guys showed determination and worked hard all season. Steve Rogers accumulated the best free throw percentage for the year and Dan Eads had the best record from the floor. Center, Brett Chittick was the team's number one rebounder. Due to the collective group effort during the season, the assist honors were shared by Bob Swan, Lindy Unger, Dennis Schnepf, and Brett Chittick. Forward Dennis Schnepf possessed over half the season's blocked shots; two of which had a hand in the Norse's final triumph over Southwood. At the winter awards program Tory Tyner received the mental attitude award. Number 35, senior Chris Sampson, was voted the team's MVP. Despite playing 3 games in 4 days during the last two weeks of the season, a continued team effort contributed to the players' individual achievements. Congratulations Coach and team for an encouraging season.

Three records broken!

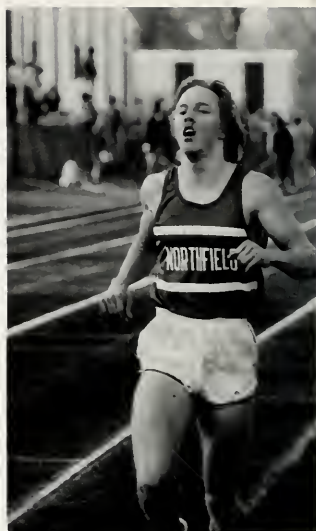

The boys' varsity track team enjoyed a very successful season. One of the big highlights for the year was the Oak Hill Relays in which 16 individual trophies were won.

Three school records were broken and one tied during the track season. Charles Faust broke the discus record. Kevin Baer, Mitch Beals, Mark Bowen, and Steve Gill established a new record in the 880 yard relay. Mark Hauptert broke the mile record which had stood since 1968. Mitch Beals tied the 440 yard dash record.

Most improved players for the year were shared by senior Mitch

Beals and junior Charles Faust. The mile won the Event Award and the members of that group were Lalon Allen, Mark Hauptert, Cary Hammel, and Kevin Kelly. M.V.P. on the 1977 track team was Mark Hauptert who had an outstanding track season. Mark broke the mile record, ran all of the long distance races and relays, was a member of the winning event award, and placed third in the Rochester sectional and went on to the regional.

The 1977 track team would like to offer its thanks and appreciation to Mr. Coppler and Mr. Leming with a special goodbye to Coach Coppler.

Team improves greatly throughout season.

The baseball team compiled a 17-13 record for the 1977 season. This was a tremendous comeback after being 5-10 after sectional action. It was a great effort from all the team especially the senior members who kept everyone up. The team finished in a tie for 2nd place in the TRC with a record of 11-3. Many of the conference wins were credited to the pitching and the improved fielding. Coach Winegardner feels with much hard work next year's team will give us something to look forward to!

Norse Girls are No. 1!

The 1976-77 girls basketball team added two more trophies to their collection this season. They won their second straight county tourney by beating Wabash and Southwood. Defeating county rival Southwood a third time made it possible for the Norse to be crowned the 1977 Sectional Champions.

The Norse girls became the first Regional Runner-up basketball team in Northfield history this year. They earned the right to hold this title by downing Ft. Wayne Elmhurst in the Huntington North Regional. The Norse lost the final game to a fine Norwell team, who later advanced to State competition.

The Dynamic Due (Deb Siders and Tracy Johnson) led the Norse team in scoring. Jame Dawes led the rebounders. Jane Rice and Jeanne Draper completed the starting line-up, while a strong bench consisting of Roxy Allen, Tina Rogers, and Cyndi Gillespie pulled the Norse through on several occasions. Members who doubled as JV and varsity players were Chris Kasamis, Tammy Deeter, Marcia Daughtery. The varsity team ended with a fine 14-2 record.

County Champs

The 1976 volleyball team, coached by Mrs. Honeycutt, had a 11-5 varsity record and 3-7 J.V. record during the season.

Like the men, the women can do it too—and they did. The Norse girls added another trophy to the trophy case by winning the county tourney. They played each of the county teams and won every game. Then, the girls went on to the sectional and lost, the final game, in a very close race.

When Coach Honeycutt was asked what she thought of the season and their victories, she replied, "This has been the best volleyball team Northfield has ever had, and we're losing valuable seniors, but they will be replaced by future sophomores and freshmen coming up."

Honor Society inducts 22

The National Honor Society inducted 10 new senior members and 12 new junior members October 22, 1976. To be eligible for the honor a junior is required to have at least a 9.0 grade point average and the senior must have at least an 8.0 grade point average. A list of students meeting these requirements is submitted to the teachers to vote upon. Their choices are based on the qualities of character, leadership and service. A tea for all members and their parents followed the induction at 3:00 p.m. in the library. Parents, teachers, and students chatted while enjoying punch and cookies provided by all the old members of the society.

The National Honor Society planned a field trip to Taylor University as one of their activities. They also sold popcorn at the annual school Carnival as a money making project.

The officers of the Society include: Mickey Strange (pres.), Debbie Warnock (vice-pres.), Lee Ann Morrison (sect.) and Scott Dawes (treas.).

The fall production was a new endeavor in drama as "The Madwoman of Chaillot" came to the stage. This was the tale of one woman's plan to rid the world of evil.

And the special event—the spring musical was well-received as the touching story of a small boy's search for love came to life in "Oliver." This plan also served as a program builder for the club as several junior high students were given the opportunity to participate.

The Norse Mighty Mouths were determined to win this year and by looking at the speech trophy case—you can see just HOW determined! Very! The team placed among the top five schools at nearly every meet.

The team's motto; "Best Cause They Want To Be," got everybody phyched up for the sectional meet (which was held here!) Eleven members placed and won the right to go to regionals at Columbia City. From there, three traveled to the state meet at Indianapolis. (That is a NHS record!) Great job folks!

N-Crowd Theme

This year's "Shield" was made possible by a hard working staff. Although, a large majority of the work was done by a small group, the results were exceptional. The staff, lead by co-editors Cindy Sinclair and Cindy Martin and assistant editor Deb Warnock, triumphantly conquered the usual last minute struggles to meet each of the four deadlines. Everyone who actually was involved with the book breathed a sigh of relief when the last part of the fifteenth volume was mailed to the company in late June.

The Journalism class had another successful year producing a fine school paper, The North Star. The staff led by Tammy Eilts, editor, and Mike Skaggs, assistant editor, put together a factual and informational piece of media that was enjoyed by the entire student body. The staff should be commended for their hard work and time they put into their great task.

FHA Busy! !

The club had a successful sales campaign with their Bicentennial cookbooks and were readily accepted with their Christmas gifts for the janitors and one of the county's needy families.

Later in the year the Club participated in the Student Council Carnival with a baked goods booth.

During the second semester FHA along with the FFA, enjoyed the annual Farmer's Dance. The girls also ventured on an exciting field trip to Muncie during spring vacation. The Seniors were honored and incoming officers were installed at a Parents' Night supper in May. It was a well rounded year and best of luck to the 1977-78 club.

1976-77 proved to be a very active year for the Northfield Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America. With a creative and energetic panel of officers the club averaged about two special activities per month. Heading the team of officers was Robin Elrod (President), with great work and assistance from her officers: Debbie Warnock (Vice-president), Iris Tackett (Project Chairman), Cindy Sinclair (Secretary), Tammy Eilts (Treasurer), Lori Niccum (Recreation Leader), and Missy Alexander (Reporter).

This year the FFA membership totaled 98. This was the 3rd largest in the state of Indiana. Leading the chapter were Scott Dawes, President; Ron Deeter, Vice-President; Robin Southworth, Secretary; Bill Simpson, Treasurer; Frank Driscoll, Reporter; Dan Carr, Sentinel. Highlights of the year were the livestock, poultry and crops team placing in the top 10 in the state contest in June, and the point awards camping trip to Cedar Point was a big success.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

This year's F.C.A. participated in a variety of activities. In November they had a hayride and a food drive for families around the area. In December the group sold Christmas trees to raise money.

During March several members attended the county meeting at Southwood. On May 4th the group hosted a county meeting.

The officers of the club were Chris Sampson, Captain; Mike Culver, Co-Captain; in the huddle—Missy Mast, Captain; Jenny Deeter, Co-Captain; Sherri Long, Secretary; and Lori Frehse, Treasurer.

Exploratory teachers teach well

This year Chris Sampson and Diane Unger took on the job of becoming exploratory teachers.

Diane Unger spent the third nine weeks helping Miss Bechtol at Northfield, and the fourth nine weeks at Metro North helping Mr. Deener. Diane found this teaching experience her answer to becoming a helper of the handicapped children.

Chris Sampson spent time at Metro North, Lagro, and Southwood, but the main part of the semester at Urbana. He worked under Steve Brubaker and worked with the fifth and sixth graders. Chris likes the elementary level of teaching and plans to continue with this field in the future.

This year the exploratory program helped the two seniors to better their goals in life and helped them to plan their future. In the years to come it will help many more.

Diane Unger and Chris Sampson had fun teaching.

Bulletin boards painted pretty

For the 1976-77 school year the Art Club painted bulletinboards to correspond to the classes that were taught in that room. The boards were painted in Mrs. Kitt's, Miss Landis's, Mr. Price's, the art room, the halls and the weight lifting room.

Besides that the art club went to view the art exhibit at Honeywell's and then to the Salamonie for an outing. The officers for the club were Chuck Schafer, president; Bob Treska, vice-president; Lisa Kitchen, secretary; Deb Blanton, treasurer and Lori Hipsher, representative.

There are three clubs at the vocational school in which students may join. They are DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America), OEA (Office Education Association), and VICA (Vocational Industrial Clubs of America). Each organization has participated in contests, fund raising projects, and field trips concerning their various fields of study. These organizations attempt to add to the well roundedness of each students personality.

Norse Girls Cheer 'Em On To Victory

This year's cheerblock added the most pep and spirit the school has seen for quite some time. Yells, chants, and songs backing the Norsemen could be heard throughout the school year. During the Boys' Sectional they decorated Victory Lane and the trophy case with blue and white streamers and signs.

The cheerblock ordered new shirts which were royal blue on one side and grey on the other. The Seniors wore their cords with matching royal blue turtle-neck body suits.

The officers for this year were Roxy Allen (President), Tracy Johnson (Vice-President), Renee Chamberlain (Secretary-Treasurer).

Cheerleaders raise ruckas ! ! !

The cheerleaders were very busy this year backing all the teams, including the girls, with their yells and chants which raised the spirit here at NHS. The cheering season started with football and continued through baseball and track. The cheerleaders raised the spirit for basketball sectional by decorating the halls. They also gave the players a little feeling of happiness with locker signs each game. Many thanks to the cheerleaders for their support.

Good times for Norsettes

Last minute routines, runners in hose and changing clothes on the bus, are just a few of the good times the girls had this year. The girls marched with the band last summer, keeping cool in their red and white jumpers.

In the fall the girls received new blue body suits with blue and white fringe and white sequins. They looked dazzling while performing to songs such as "The Theme from Police Story," "Yankee Doodle," and "Love Will Keep Us Together."

Basketball season brought new routines and music. A 50's, a square dance and a hat and cane routines were performed by the Flag and Pom Pom Corps.

The band is divided into several groups: the summer Marching Band, Fall Marching Band and Concert Band.

Summer Marching Band marched in the Roann Parade (placing 3rd), Monroe County Parade (placing 7th), and Wabash County Parade (placing 1st). Tracy Johnson was given the Best Marching Band member award.

Concert Band received a 2nd place rating at the NISBOVA state contest. This year the band also elected a king and queen. They were Mark Wagner and Carla Yentes both juniors.

Several students participated in the NISBOVA solo and ensemble contest at Kokomo. Two students: Teresa Rice, senior, french horn; and Brenda Terrel, junior, french horn; qualified for state competition at Indianapolis. Teresa received a 1st place rating and Brenda received Awards were presented at the Spring Band Concert. Most valuable player awards went to Freshman Dan Sparling, Sophomore Kathy Gautsche, Junior Carla Yentes and Senior Kevin Kelly. The John Philip Sousa Award went to Senior Teresa Rice. The King and Queen winners were also announced.

The Stage Band suffered through the long, grueling practices but . . . it was worth it. The Stage Band also received a second rating at the Stage Band Contest at Ft. Wayne Snyder.

Room 212, "The Chorus room," keeps busy

East of the central office, next to the cafeteria, and amazingly close to the bandroom is room 212, better known as "the chorus room". It is also the rehearsal hall of some of the greatest singers in Wabash county. At many times during the day and night could be heard the jubilant refrains of talented students making beautiful music or reciting "toc-a-doo-mi" and singing numbers—"1 3 5 8 5 3 1"—to their hearts content.

It was a busy year for the singers at NHS with concerts featuring the varsity choir, swing choir, beginning ensemble and the eighth grade chorus in the fall, the Christmas convo and the Spring adventure in choral music in May.

The swing choir and the varsity choir both went to NISBOVA contests this year and were victorious in the eyes and ears of their judges and peers. Twenty-two members of these select singers also performed in the Wabash County Honors Choir in March.

Special and honorable mention goes to the 8th grade chorus who had the distinct distinction of being the liveliest choir that Mr. Rust has ever had.

The Jr. High Band had a busy schedule this year. They marched in the Urbana Parade in the fall. They held a Winter Concert in December and a Spring Concert in May.

The band received a first rating at the state band contest in March and all the students performed a solo at NISBOVA contest in Kokomo. By far, the Jr. High band was one of the strongest Jr. High bands of Northfield.

It is the job of the administration to see that every detail of the school's educational system flows smoothly. And as always the year was a success.

I do not fear tomorrow,

Our senior year went awfully fast. It started out with us nominating Wendy Holman and Mitch Beals for our Homecoming candidates and building a float about the Jungle Book. Athletics was a big part of the year with many seniors finishing with honors. The Prom and the class party were both big successes. Almost everyone went to them. Graduation was a happy and a sad affair. It was also a time for us to start wondering what we are going to do.

Exchange students enjoyed learning new customs

Living with the Lowell Karns family this year was the exchange student from Wetlingen, Switzerland: Yvonne Gysi. Yvonne came to NHS all smiles and ready for adventures. Sure enough . . . she found them. She discovered what cheerleaders were; what was meant by "extracurricular activities;" and learned to go to school from 8:00-3:15 instead of her usual 7:00-6:00!

To even up the exchange, NHS senior Tammy Harrington went to Switzerland and stayed with the Gysi family. She learned the "Swiss" way of life and toured the country side.

Yvonne Gysi and Tammy Harrington had fun visiting each other's countries.

Homecoming fun!

The Juniors had a particularly active life this year at Northfield. First, to end the anticipation from the summer, the rings were finally distributed. Then the Homecoming became very special when Debbie Winters and Perry Van Meter were elected Queen and King. The float "Fly To A Victory" won top honors. The money that was made from the magazine sale was spent on the 14th annual Prom; "Stairway to Heaven." The class officers were Beth Schnepf, vice-president; Susan Joy, secretary; Cherly Huffman, treasurer; Lori Beaver, pres. Float places 2nd

The sophomores enjoyed their year here at NHS. One of the highlights of the year was homecoming. Rosie Kramer and Brian Reed were chosen as their Queen and King candidates and their float won second place with its Disneyland characters from Winnie the Pooh. There were three sophs on the 1977 Girls Sectional Champion basketball team and as J.V. cheerleaders. The class was really excited about ordering their class rings in the spring. Their class party was a success. The officers of the class were Lisa Beals, David Sausaman, Lalon Allen, and Duane Wilcox. Rise in sports

The main event for the class of '81 was sports. The 8th grade boys and girls basketball teams became County Champs. The girl's team was also the only undefeated team at NHS this year. Some of the 8th graders participated in the spring musical "Oliver". Class officers were Tom Denari, Kelly Bricker, Cathy Deeter, and Betsy Deeter. It's done!!!

The editors (Cindy, Cindy and Debbie) would like to thank all those who helped make this year a success. It was a big undertaking with inexperienced editors such as ourselves and most of the members of the Shield Staff. All the copy, captions, lay-outs, ads, typing, etc. that we thought wouldn't ever get done was finally finished. It isn't easy to publish a yearbook!

We want to wish Beth and Lori the best of luck next year and hope that the staff will be more dedicated to them than they were to us. May they meet all the deadlines and get along well with their representatives, staff members and MRS. KITT.

We hope that through this yearbook you can look back on happy memories; like Homecoming, the Girls Basketball Sectional Victory, the Prom, and the crowds who attended "Oliver".

A special thanks to Mr. Werking for taking many of our pictures for nothing.

I would like to say thank you to the girls this year. It is a much tougher job making a yearbook when you have a part time job which all the girls did this year. Thanks again for pulling us through. Mrs. Kitt
